Linda Salazar requests continued prayer for the healing of her eye. The results of her tests have not come back from the lab. It's a possibility that fluid or blood is behind her eye.

Pray for Alicia Baldarrama's husband, Ricardo, who had a bone marrow transplant last week. Pray for peace and comfort.

Patsy Garner writes, "We thank everyone for your prayers, hospital visits and calls during George's knee replacement surgery. He is doing much better. What a mighty God We serve!"

Monina Pallazola wishes to thank everyone for your prayers. Bill did not have to have the procedure done. Continue to pray for wisdom for the doctors.

Joyce Seale writes, "Lori will begin chemotherapy on September 8, for four weeks. When her chemo is completed, she will go every day for a month for radiation treatments. After that, she will be released to go to her assignment in Utah. The detail officer told her that he will hold her job in Utah for her since this will only take a couple of months. Meanwhile she is staying with here with me. Thank you for your prayers." Continue to pray for Lori McIntyre who has been diagnosed with MALT lymphoma or MALToma, a rare form of non-Hodgkin lymphoma.

Mission Prayer

It looks like prayers have been answered regarding cholera. Continued prayer for all of the little ones who have contracted pneumonia and malaria in Africa."

Please pray for Pat Dooley (mom of one of our missionaries). She is in the hospital with serious blood problems. Pray for discernment for the doctors and restoration of health for Pat.
